WASHINGTON HERALD BUREAU

Alexandria, Va., Oct. 15.—At a meeting of the city Democratic committee held to-night at the opera house, arrangements were made for the mass meeting, which will be held at the opera house on the night of October 27, when speeches will be made by Representative C. C. Carlin and Harry St. George Tucker. It was decided to invite Robinson Moncure to make an address on that occasion. Mr. Moncure is the Democratic nominee for the house of delegates from this city and county.

A committee of fifteen was appointed to escort the speakers to the hall. The chairman, Charles Bendheim, was instructed to procure suitable music for the meeting. Announcement was made that the question of organization would be taken up at a meeting which will be held Friday next.

The committee named to escort the speakers to the hall is as follows: Mayor F. J. Paff, R. S. Barrett, R. D. Brumback, C. M. Marshall, F. C. Spinks, H. W. Smith, J. M. Hill, T. L. Russell, S. F. Fisher, J. Fred R. R. Caton, Hubert Snowden, R. H. Cox, J. R. N. Curtin, T. W. Robinson.

True bills to eleven indictments were returned by a special grand jury in the Corporation Court this morning. Judge L. C. Barley presiding. Those indicted included Lewis Connor, alias James Longshot, white; Joseph Dudley and James Johnson, negroes, for engaging in the cocaine traffic.

Other indictments returned were as follows: Harry Simms, assault; John Williams, assault; Charles Harris, breaking and entering the residence of Charles E. Day; John, alias John Thompson, and Thomas Ward, negro boys, breaking and entering the store of A. S. Donahue; Peter Hall, Jr., Joseph McCarthy, and Ella Langford, assaulting and robbing Elmer Jones. Those on the jury were R. S. Barrett, foreman; M. L. King, G. D. Hopkins, R. E. Gronau, W. F. Byers, Wythe White, T. J. Fannon, R. W. Arnold, and J. A. Egghorn.

The trial of Simms and Williams was fixed for Friday next.

The case of John Lattin, engineer of a Southern Railway locomotive, and C. R. Viole, conductor of a train on the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway, an appeal from a decision given in the Police Court, in which both were fined $10 each by Justice Thompson for a collision September 8 last, at Cameron and Henry streets, was begun in the Corporation Court at noon today. When court adjourned this afternoon the examination of witnesses for the Commonwealth had not been concluded. The case will probably go to the jury late to-morrow afternoon.

Engineer Lattin is being represented by Col. F. L. Smith and R. D. Brumback, and Conductor Viole is being represented by Attorneys James R. Caton & Son.

As a result of the collision, the rear end of the trailer of the electric train was practically demolished and two passengers were slightly injured.

Attorney Lewis H. Machen, representing Calvin Johnson, negro, convicted of the murder of Walter F. Schults, denies a report from Richmond to the effect that he said that Pines, Johnson, and Dorsey were in some way guilty of participation in the Schults murder.

Dr. Lucian C. Smith, who has for the past nine months been in Rio Janeiro, Brazil, a former resident of this city, has returned to his home in Washington. Dr. Smith was formerly engaged in the newspaper business here and in Washington. While in Brazil he was employed as surgeon by a railway company. He is now at the George Washington University Hospital by illness.

French Method of Developing the Bust

Mme. DuBarrie Explains How the Bust May Be Developed 2 to 8 Inches in 30 Days.

"I am explaining for the first time to the ladies of America," says Mme. DuBarrie, "the French method of developing the bust. It is much more effective, the results appear much more quickly, the breasts become more firm, plump, and symmetrical, the method is more simple, the effects more lasting, and altogether beyond comparison with the results produced here.

"You know the French people have the development of the bust and form down to a fine point.

"By this French method the breasts may be developed from two to eight inches in thirty days. This applies to women of almost any age, from young girls to elderly matrons, whether the bust is absolutely not developed at all, or has grown weak and flabby and hangs, no matter from what cause.

"It is beauty of form that attracts more than anything else. You will always find it so with both sexes.

"I will be only too glad to tell any woman who is interested with this simple French method is if she will inclose a 2-cent stamp to pay for the postage. I will send an illustrated booklet in a plain sealed wrapper that will explain it all."

We suggest to our lady readers that they write to Mme. DuBarrie for particulars of this remarkable French method. Inclose 2 cents in stamps for the illustrated booklet and address it to Mme. DuBarrie, Suite 313 Quinlan Building, Chicago, Ill.

COMING TRIUMPHS.

I know not who may be the one to find the southern pole, afar where blizzards have their fun and icy billows roll, where darkness broods for evermore, and winds like demons shriek—I only know he'll be a bore when he begins to speak. Some day some student of the stars will bridge the gulf of space, and with the denizens of Mars he'll bring us face to face: I cannot pick this soul inspired from out the common flock—I only know he'll make us tired when he begins to talk. Some day an aeronaut will rise and soar across the sea; his shining wings will brush the skies and whirl triumphantly. O ask me not when he departs, or where he's apt to stop! I only know he'll break our hearts when he begins to yawn! Some day a scientist will find a way to hitch the sun, and turn our wheels, and saw and grind, and bring us in da mon'y; this man may be a hoary sage, he may be flip and young; I only know he'll make us rage when he unfurls his tongue. Some day the greatest man of all a triumph will have won; exploits of others will seem small compared with what he's done; his praises all the world will sing, and kings will bowing come, but he won't make the welkin ring—for he'll be deaf and dumb.

In spite of this fact, the city work done are considerably greater than that of the same month last year. James M. Wood, superintendent, reported to the Commissioners that five new machine gangs had been put to work.

REFUSED WAR PENSION.

Late Col. Morrison Let Allowance Accumulate Until His Death.

The following bit of history concerning the late Col. William R. Morrison, who died a few days ago at Waterloo, Ill., is related by Henry C. Bell, of Illinois, former Deputy Commissioner of Pensions.

"On the passage of the Mexican war pension law, Gen. John C. Black, then Commissioner of Pensions, had a pension certificate for $10 a month issued to Col. Morrison and mailed same to him, without waiting for him to make application for the same. This certificate was promptly returned by Col. Morrison, with a letter in which he stated that he had made no application for pension; that he did not desire the pension, and declined to receive it.

"The certificate was placed in the colonel's case, and filed away. In 1901 I wrote to Col. Morrison telling him that the accrued pension on this certificate then amounted to about $1,500 and that he could readily get it. He wrote back, thanking me, but saying that he did not care then to ask for it, but requested me to tell him if his wife, if she survived him, could get the money. I answered that she could. He wrote me again, saying he would leave it there, and if he died first his wife could get the money if she needed it, and desired to do so. When the colonel died a few days since, there was due him, on this pension, as his wife preceded him to the other life, about $2,700."

That is the word of the Doctor when he finds a patient with thin blood and twitching nerves.

The barley malt of Schlitz Beer makes rich, red blood. The hops are a soporific for the tired nerves.

The little alcohol quickens and aids digestion so that other food is more easily assimilated. The liquid flushes the body of its waste.

Could anything better meet your needs?

The good of Schlitz is not alone in the ingredients. There is skill and care in its brewing.

Scrupulous cleanliness attends every operation. The cooling is even done in filtered air.

The result is a beer that is not only good for you but there can be no injurious or unpleasant after-effect.

Our thorough aging avoids the biliousness due to hurrying beer to market without sufficient time to mature.

See that the cork or crown is branded Schlitz.
